

Compass Regional Hospice recognizes Walsh as Volunteer of the Month

Jack Walsh is the most recent Compass Regional Hospice volunteer of the month.

Compass Regional Hospice chose Jack Walsh of Centreville as the most recent volunteer of the month. Walsh has been a hospice volunteer for more than seven years. In that time, he has been involved in almost every part of Compass Regional Hospice’s volunteer program.

Most recently he was nominated for his flexibility and dedication in supporting

Compass staff and visiting with patients at the six-bed residential Hospice Center in Centreville.

“Jack is a regular face on weekends at the Hospice Center, in addition to the assignments he has with patients residing wherever they call home,” says Courtney Williams, Manager of Volunteer and Professional Services. “He is always willing to support the different events and initiatives sponsored by Compass Regional Hospice, and we are certainly lucky to have him.”

Compass Regional Hospice relies on more than 300 volunteers of all ages to lend a helping hand. Volunteers help in a variety of ways, such as performing administrative and maintenance tasks, assisting with events, visiting with patients and more. Volunteers also operate Estate Treasures, an upscale resale shop in Chester that raises funds for Compass Regional Hospice.

For information about becoming a volunteer for Compass Regional Hospice in Queen Anne’s, Kent and Caroline Counties or for help finding the right volunteer opportunity for you visit www.compassregionalhospice.org/volunteers or contact Courtney Williams, 443-262-4112, cwilliams@compassregionalhospice.org.