

Estate Treasures hosts Art Auction for Compass Regional Hospice

March 6, 2018

Pictured with art items that will be featured at the Estate Treasures art auction on Saturday, May 5 at Cascia Vineyards are committee members (left to right) Kay Dermody, Joan Hoffman, Emile Baebel, Ken Baebel, Lorraine Sincavage of Estate Treasures; and Kristen Majchrzak, development assistant, Compass Regional Hospice.

Estate Treasures, an upscale resale shop in Chester, will host an art auction on Saturday, May 5 from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. at Cascia Vineyards and Winery, 1200 Thompson Creek Rd in Stevensville. An affiliate of Compass Regional Hospice, Estate Treasures has been raising money for hospice care and grief support provided in Queen Anne's County for over 25 years.

Tickets for the art auction are $25 in advance and $30 at the door. Ticketholders will enjoy light refreshments and a complimentary glass of Cascia Vineyards wine. A cash bar will feature a full menu of fine wines produced by the vineyard. Guests must be at least 21 years old to attend.

This Estate Treasures fundraiser will delight art lovers of all genres. The event features silent and live auctions. Guests will bid on a variety of art including watercolors and prints, some created and signed by local artists whose work reflects life and scenes from the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

All art work has been donated to Estate Treasures and Cascia Vineyards is offering their waterfront facility so that proceeds from the auction can benefit the work of Compass Regional Hospice. For more information and to purchase tickets, contact Kenda Leager, development officer, Compass Regional Hospice, 443-262-4106, kleager@compassregionalhospice.org.

Compass Regional Hospice – Care on your terms

Compass Regional Hospice is a fully licensed, independent, community-based nonprofit organization certified by Medicare and the State of Maryland, and accredited by the Joint Commission. Since 1985, Compass Regional Hospice has been dedicated to supporting people of all ages through the challenge of living with a life-limiting illness and learning to live following the death of a loved one. Today the organization is a regional provider of hospice care and grief support in Queen Anne's, Kent and Caroline counties. "Care on your terms" is the promise that guides staff and volunteers as they care for patients in private residences, nursing homes, assisted living facilities and the residential hospice centers in Centreville, Chestertown and Denton. Grief support services are offered to children, adults and families of patients who died under hospice care, as well as members of the community who are grieving the loss of a loved one through The Hope & Healing Center. For more information about Compass Regional Hospice, visit compassregionalhospice.org.

Media Contact:

Shelby Farmer, Communications Specialist

443-262-4177

sfarmer@compassregionalhospice.org